Certified Copies, Serial No. 10/662,372

Pages 5, 14, 40 and 44 the referenced application were copied at an angle in nine (9) certified copies sent to Praxair on February 4, 2004 (see attached sample copy) and distributed to the following countries before I was aware of the problem. We have been informed by the agents in these countries that the certified copies are thus not acceptable for filing:

Australia, Canada, China, EPC, India, Japan, Korea, Mexico

I have been told by the applications division that the pages are scanned properly in their system. So that we may proceed in these countries, please sent eight (8) replacement certified copies of the application to:
